Due to regulations in China, Flywire is required to collect an official invoice from you to verify that the payment is authentic and reasonable.

An invoice is a tuition bill or notification issued by the education institution. Most invoices and tuition bills are accessible through student accounts or are sent as registered mail.

The invoice, or its uploaded screenshot, should contain all of the following:

A. Student name.

B. Full name of the education institution.

A logo alone is not sufficient. In a screenshot, the institution's name can be substituted with a link of the institution's page, and in an email, the institution's name can be substituted with the sender's institution email address.

C. Amount due.

In general, the actual amount paid should not exceed the amount stated in the invoice.

Uploaded conditional offers can only be used as payment notifications for deposits.

We will manually review all uploaded files. If your uploaded file does not meet the above criteria, you will be asked to provide the required documents. If you are still unable to provide them, your payment will not be sent to your institution; it will be cancelled and returned.

Step 13:
